PARTNER INFO

HOPE Coffee uses 100% Arabica coffee beans that are cupped for quality and classified as specialty grade strictly high grown (SHG) coffee. This coffee comes from Honduras through our partnership with small local coffee farmer associations like Cultivadores del Reino (Kingdom Growers). Cultivadores del Reino helps to transform and sustain the lives of local farmers who are involved in or ministered to by the Camino Global – related churches (HOPE Coffee’s parent non-profit) in Honduras.

WHY GO ON THIS TRIP?

The Crossing has been in a partnership with HOPE Coffee in Honduras for years. People in Las Vegas have contributed to the ministry they are doing simply by purchasing coffee and baked goods in the REACH cafe, so taking on the opportunity to learn about and be a part of where your money has gone would be a great opportunity..

WHAT WILL WE BE DOING?

Workers of HOPE Coffee believe that it’s healthy to let the Honduran believers reach out and do the ministry side of HOPE Coffee, but to have the US churches engage in encouraging the believers and farmers. Because of this, travelers will be working alongside coffee farmers and locals on building projects to encourage them and learn from them about their lives, country, and conditions. They will learn about coffee farming and the lifestyle that the locals live down there.
