I can celebrate God.

MEMORY VERSE

"Shout aloud and sing for joy."
Isaiah 12:6 NIV

Week One

Psalms
Psalm 33, 100

When we see what God has made, we can celebrate God.

Week Two

Deborah
Judges 4:1–10, 14; 5:1–31

Deborah and Barak are so happy that God helped them win a battle, so they sing a song to celebrate God.

Week Three

Moses and Miriam
Exodus 15

Moses and Miriam celebrate God with all of God's people by singing, dancing, and playing tambourines.

Week Four

Feast of Booths
Deuteronomy 16:13–17, 29:5; Leviticus 23

God's people live in tents and celebrate God because of everything He has done for them.

Week Five

David Praises God
2 Samuel 6:12–15; 1 Chronicles 15–16

King David dances with all his might and wants people to celebrate God every day.

NOVEMBER 2026 | Preschool

I can celebrate God.

Morning Time

When you go into your child's room, say: "Good morning, [child's name]! I see someone God made...YOU! And I celebrate God for you!"

Cuddle Time

Cuddle with your child and pray: "God, when we look at the world You made, it's easy to see that You are good. Thank You for...(name things in creation you are thankful for). We want to celebrate You for all You made!"

Drive Time

While on the go, name things that God made. Finish by saying, "And we can celebrate God for it all!"

Bath Time

Add bath confetti to bath time. Show your child how to toss the confetti with their hands while saying, "Yay, God!"
